

Filers Responding to Each SEI Question

This section of the report reviews the volume of responses in two ways. First, it analyzes the distribution of responses on SEI filings compared to the total, and second, the percentage of people who gave a substantive response to each question. The overwhelming majority of filers responded NA (not applicable) to all questions on their statement. Only 2,896 people provided at least one substantive answer.

Question seven, concerning the filers' service on or employment by another unit of government, received the highest distribution of substantial responses with 28.7% of the total responses. Yet, only 5.3% of the total filers had a substantive response. Question five, describing the filers' capital interests over $5,000, received the lowest distribution of substantial responses at 3.0% of responses with .6% of filers noting a capital interest.
